Volumes One to Five of the NEW SERIES of the ART-JOURNAL, comprising the VERNON GALLERY, are now ready, and may be obtained, together or separately, at the price of One Guinea and a Half, bound in cloth, &c.; each Volume contains Thirty-six Engravings on Steel, and upwards of Six Hundred Engravings on Wood.

THE VOLUME FOR 1853, Price 1*l.* 1*l.* 6*d.*, cloth gilt, is Now Issued.

THE SIXTH VOLUME, to be issued during the year 1854, will complete the entire series of the VERNON GALLERY—the great national collection of the works of British artists, the munificent gift of Mr. Vernon to the British people. Among those yet to appear are several of the most valuable and interesting of the Gallery; for example:—

"PEACE AND WAR," by LANDSEER.

"HAMLET," by MACLISE.

"THE SAVIOUR PROPHECYING OVER JERUSALEM," by EASTLAKE.

"THE DAME SCHOOL," by WEBSTER.

"THE GRAPE GATHERERS IN THE SOUTH OF FRANCE," by UWINK.

"THE HALL AT COURTRAY," by HAGHE.

"LORD WILLIAM RUSSELL," by JOHNSTON. &c., &c.

With the Volume for 1854 will be also given, in association with those choice examples of the VERNON GALLERY, Line Engravings of the following Works by leading Masters of the British and Foreign schools:—

"A SUMMER'S HOLIDAY," after F. GOODALL, A.R.A.

"VIEW IN ITALY," after C. STANFIELD, R.A.

"JOB AND HIS FRIENDS," after P. F. POOLE, A.R.A.

"VAL ST. NICOLA," after J. D. HARDING.

"THE DEATH OF NELSON," after SLINGENYER.

"VAN DE VELDE STUDYING AFTER NATURE," &c. &c.

Due notice will be given of a valuable and interesting series of Works—now in course of preparation—to succeed the VERNON GALLERY.

With respect to the future—as in regard to the past—the Editor hopes his subscribers will confide in his assurance, that all which energy and industry can do in combination with judicious and liberal expenditure, shall be done, in order still further to extend the influence of this JOURNAL, and to augment its power of advancing the true interests of Art in all its manifold ramifications; earnestly and zealously aiding the movement which during the last ten years has been so essentially promoting the welfare of Art in these Kingdoms.

It will be perceived that we publish, occasionally, ILLUSTRATED REPORTS OF THE PROGRESS OF ART-MANUFACTURE. It is to be understood that this is done entirely at our expense, without any cost to the Manufacturer. It would seem only just that the Manufacturer should pay for that which is so obviously for his advantage; but if we permitted him to do so, we should necessarily allow him to make his own selection, which it would not be always wise to do. We therefore take the whole responsibility and the whole cost on ourselves.

COMPLETE SETS OF THE Art-Journal from the commencement, are now among the class of "scarce books:" and will bring a price larger than the original cost of them to the subscriber: we have frequent application for a "set," which we are rarely able to procure: and have on several occasions ourselves paid more than we received for it. We confess to the satisfaction we feel in knowing that this work has not found its way among the periodicals which have become cheap because their utility was merely for a day. This announcement has for its object, however, to state that those who may have no further occasion for their sets may readily now transfer them without loss. Applications may be made to the publisher of the Art-Journal.

Covers for the Volumes of the ART-JOURNAL can be had of any Bookseller at Three Shillings each.

We reply to every letter, requiring an answer, that may be sent to us with the writer's name and address; but we do not attend to anonymous communications, preferring the trouble incident to written replies, to occupying our columns with matters of little or no concern to our readers generally.

The Office of the Editor of the ART-JOURNAL is removed to 4, Lancaster Place, Waterloo Bridge, Strand, where all Editorial communications are in future to be addressed. Letters, &c., for the Publishers, should be forwarded, as usual, to 25, Paternoster Row.

All Orders for Advertisements should be sent to Messrs. VIRTUE & Co., Cottage Place, City Road; or to 4, Lancaster Place, Waterloo Bridge, Strand.

Post Office Orders should be made payable to Mr. GEORGE VIRTUE, 25, Paternoster Row.
